*Te ergo quaesumus,
tuis famulis subveni,
quos pretioso sanguine redemisti.*

We pray thee, Lord,
help thy servants,
whom thou hast redeemed
by thy Precious Blood.

Father John writes:

July: The Month of the Precious Blood

July is the traditional month of devotion to the Precious Blood of Jesus, by which we are redeemed. Each day you might like to say this prayer, inscribed above the west door of Westminster Cathedral (the Cathedral of the Precious Blood): Lord Jesus, King and Redeemer, by thy Blood save us!

This Tuesday: Farewell, Fr Andrew!

We shall shortly be bidding farewell to Fr Andrew, who will be taking up a new post in America in August. You will have an opportunity to wish him well when he celebrates the 9.30 am Mass here this Tuesday, 9th July, followed by coffee and cake in the Glass Room.

Next Sunday: Second Collection

14th July – Apostolate of the Sea (Sea Sunday)

This Tuesday: Talk on Prayer at Blackfriars

Fr Nicholas Crowe OP, the Dominican Provincial, will be giving a talk on prayer at Blackfriars on Tuesday 9th July at 7 pm.

Advance Notice: High Mass of Our Lady of Carmel

On Tuesday 16th July, the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, there will be a High Mass in the Traditional Latin form at 6 pm. It will be offered for the deceased nuns of the Moreton Road Carmel.

Breaking News: Open Letter to the Holy See in Defence of the Traditional Latin Mass

Yesterday The Times published a letter signed by 48 writers, musicians, and politicians, asking the Holy See not to restrict the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass (Mass in the ‘Extraordinary Form’, as Pope Benedict called it). The initiative came from Sir James Macmillan, a Catholic and one of Britain’s most distinguished composers. ‘The people who have signed this letter [says Sir James] are an impressively mixed bunch – Catholics, Protestants, Jews, agnostics, atheists, all convinced that the Traditional Latin Mass is a thing of great beauty, wonder and awe, and a profound shaper of our culture, one way or another, over the centuries.’ In 1971 a similar letter, signed among others by Agatha Christie, persuaded Pope St Paul VI to grant permission for the Traditional Latin Mass to be celebrated in England and Wales.

Counting the Collections: Help Needed

Each Sunday the collections are counted by a very team. We really should be involving more people and have several counting teams. Please let me know if you would like to help with this unseen but very important task.

Mass Intentions

Asking for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass to be offered for anyone, living or dead, is a beautiful and powerful act of faith, hope, and charity. If you would like a Holy Mass offered, please use one of the little brown envelopes in the narthex, fill in the details, add your offering, and return through the Presbytery letter-box or collection plate.

The Food Larder

Thank you to all those contributing items each week. Please continue to donate dry goods, and toiletries, using the boxes in the narthex and Presbytery porch. A suggestion to add to the list for the next few months – fruit squash. New contributors are always welcome! Just one item each week makes a difference when lots of people are involved.

Please pray for the newly elected Members of Parliament. Pray in particular that they do nothing further to endanger human life, at its beginning and its end.

Please continue to pray for peace in the Middle East, and don’t forget Ukraine and Sudan!

Please pray for the sick and housebound

His Majesty The King, HRH The Princess of Wales, Anne-Marie, Christopher Browne, Clifford Browne, Jane Brownson, Ela Bulewicz, Olive Clarke, Paul Conway, Maureen Dalton, Imogen Davies, Mike Hall, Aneta Gawrysiak, Joyann Green, Sr. Joseph Andrew OP, Jill Kelly, Emily Long, Elsie Michaud, Fiona McLaren, Anne Morris, Alice Murphy, Jill Pinnock, Angela Prendergast, Paul Radcliffe, Catherine Scott-Yeomans, Joy Smith, Malcolm Spicer, Matthew Spicer, Evelyn Watkin, Anthea Watson, and Dennis White.

Please pray for the faithful departed

Please pray for the repose of the souls of all the faithful departed, especially Florence Attridge, Adelaide Britain, James Brogan, Elizabeth Dilloway, Malcolm Farrow, James Patrick Hannon, Tess Jerrett, Olive Joy Louisa Kelly, George Anthony Taylor, and Marie Robyn Wynn, who have anniversaries at this time.

+ Requiem aeternam dona eis,
Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.
